10 UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
11 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

12 IN RE: CASE No. 17-10828 WJL
13 FLOYD E. SQUIRES, III and CHAPTER 11
14 BETTY J. SQUIRES,
15 Debtors. / EX PARTE MOTION FOR ORDER
16 EXTENDING TIME TO FILE REVISED
17 CASH COLLATERAL BUDGET

18 Floyd Squires and Betty Squires, Debtors herein, hereby move
19 the above entitled Court for an Order Extending the Time to File
20 Cash Collateral Budget and represent:

21 1. The Motion for interim use of cash collateral was heard
22 in Eureka on December 8, 2017. The Court authorized interim use of 23 cash collateral on specific terms. The Court also directed meet
24 and confer on the budget to be proposed between counsel for Adams,
25 the OUST and Debtors and, further that the revised budget be filed
26 by December 14, 2017 and further hearing on December 21, 2017 in 27 Santa Rosa.

28 2. Debtor prepared revised budgets which were sent to 29 counsel for Adams and to OUST. A conference was held by telephone
30 on December 13, 2017 between Jared Day, Larry Kluck and David N.
31 Chandler with Floyd Squires participating.

1       3.    Budget line items were discussed as well as pre-petition
2 defaults to secured creditors as alleged by Mr. Kluck on December
3 8, 2017.

4       4.    Some budgetary considerations were agreed upon such as 5 regular payments on the mortgages, utilities, insurance,
6 maintenance, and repairs. Other budgetary items were discussed and 7 agreement, per se, could not be reached but Mr. Kluck agreed that
8 he would not object if included. Rather than address
9 administrative costs as line items, what was discussed and not
10 subject to objection was a fixed percentage of the rents collected,
11 an owner's draw, and a monthly payment to Adams.

12      5.    Mr. Squires agreed to promptly revise the budget
13 consistent with the items discussed and agreed upon and to include
14 the items to which Mr. Kluck would not object. Mr. Day concurred
15 that the agreed line items would be acceptable, although the OUST
16 had not opposed use of cash collateral.

17      6.    Mr. Squires was required to travel to Stanford Hospital
18 for medical tests apparently not available in Eureka on December 19 13, 2017 and was unavailable to counsel for the entire day of 20 December 14, 2017. Counsel did not learn of Mr. Squires
21 unavailability until mid afternoon, December 14, 2017.

22      7.    It is not known when Mr. Squires will be available to 23 finalize revisions to the budget, however, counsel is confident
24 that by Monday, December 18, 2017, the revised budget containing 25 the agreed and tacitly agreed terms can be filed and disseminated.

26           WHEREFORE, it is respectfully submitted that time for filing
27 and serving the revised budget containing the meet and confer terms

1 be extended to and including December 18, 2017 and for such other
2 and further relief as the Court deems proper.

3 Dated: December 14, 2017
